

Parliaments in Asymmetric "federal" Systems: How to Combine Differentiation with Parliamentary Representation

📅 30 aprile 2019 ore 9:00

📍 Sala Consiglio Viale Pola 12, Roma

Luis School of Government presents a seminar organized within the Jean Monnet Chair on “Understanding Representative Democracy in Europe”.

Program

The sustainability of parliamentary representation in asymmetric contexts: Europe and beyond
Chair

Pietro Pustorino Luiss

Speakers

Richard Bellamy European University Institute: Differentiated Integration as a Fair Scheme of Cooperation

Giuseppe Martinico Sant’Anna di Pisa: Parliaments in asymmetric federal states

Nicolas Besly UK House of Lords: Representation at Westminster after devolution: the case of EVEL

Discussants

Robert Schütze Durham Law School and Luiss

Cristina Fasone Luiss

Debate

Coffee Break

Roundtable - The European Parliament and representative democracy in a 'multi-speed' Union

Chair

Nicola Lupo Luiss

Speakers

Francesco Cherubini Luiss

Gianluca Contaldi University of Macerata

Elena Griglio Senate of the Italian Republic

Conclusion

Antoine Vauchez e Stéphanie Henneke-Vauchez Université Paris 1 Pantheon Sorbonne

Registration (<mailto:cesp@luiss.it>)

QTEM

(<http://www.qtem.org/>)